Working for Women Empowerment & Child Rights

Monthly Update

(April 2022)

Back to School program: With support of Child Rights and you (CRY) we started Back to School program for children. We teach upto class 6th to 10th mainly Mathematics, Science and English. More than 2200 children are getting free education support from marginalized societies. Neb Sarai, Sangam Vihar, Nangloi are running these centres. Apart from teaching we also conduct extra curriculum with children like Psychosocial, Life skill, and personality development activities. Interaction and involvement of parents is also happening. As the title mentioned above "Back to School" we are happy to share children's education level is gradually enhancing which they lost due to pandemic.

Collaboration with "Swasti"

For conducting Covid vaccination camp with collaboration of the Health department. Also help desk for marginalized people for social protection scheme registration. We inform them of schemes, check the essential document, guide for completion of documentation and to register them. Ladli Scheme, PMMSY, PMJVVY , E-shram portal, labor card, old age pension, widow pension etc.

Collaboration with Innerwheel

Innerwheel Foundation organised life skill and personality development program with our girls and women in vocational training centre and with children Back to School.

Half Yearly Consultation on Child Rights:

We organised half yearly consultation on child rights with 50 children of Sangam Vihar and Neb Sarai. Children raised many issues which related to their protection.

FCC Programme: Since 2008 this FCC we're imparting with the support of Central Social Welfare Board. DSWB is authorised State monitoring body for all FCC's. Chairperson applauds our work, motivated and appreciated the team for their good work. Our FCC is also in list of service provider of The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence 2005 ACT (PWDVA). National Commission for Women (NCW) listed Nav Srishti on their website as support organisation for women.
