Working for Women Empowerment & Child Rights

Monthly Update (NOVEMBER 2023)

Child Marriage

Child marriage is a serious issue addressed by laws in many countries, including India. In India, the legal age for marriage is 18 for girls and 21 for boys. Child marriage is prohibited under the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006.

Advocates Abhishek and Promila from the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) likely emphasized these legal aspects and the consequences associated with child marriage during their session conducted by Nav Srishti. The aim would be to create awareness and deterrence against the practice, protecting the rights and well-being of children.

Life Skill Sessions

Teacher Conducting life skill sessions with children. Children from our Child Activity Centre at Nangloi & Sultanpuri - West Delhi & North West Delhi. In these areas, there is a need to keep continuous talk and sensitization with children. Objective is to make them aware about the unsafe environment around them like issue of missing, trafficking, and child abuse.

Retail Training

On 21/11/2023, there was an interview at MGF Mall, Gurugram, for the position of Hospitality Management. KFC conducted the interview, and we are delighted to share those seven students, all trained by Nav Srishti, were selected for the job. Great news for our talented individuals.

Community Awareness

Community awareness through Street play at Sangam Vihar on "Empowering Women by skilling and providing them with Employment Opportunity".

Objective is to make larger people aware about Retail training. It is a 35-day course after which placement opportunity is provided. Training is free of cost and in 6-7 hours session, we provide trainees with tea, snacks, meal, uniform, and stationaries in the centre. Around 3500 people watched the street play and we also distributed pamphlets.
