Working for Women Empowerment & Child Rights

Monthly Update (December 2023)

Retail Training

On 10th December 2023, Nav Srishti with the support of TRRAIN completed its first TRRAINER ASCENT BATCH (Retail Training). During these 35 days journey our trainees learnt about the retail sector and were guided by our staff to become job ready. This opportunity has helped our trainees to become professional, responsible, and armed them with the much-needed skills they require to grow in the retail sector.

Cyber Cell Faridabad

On 15/12/2023, Nav Srishti organization in collaboration with Cyber Cell Faridabad Police organized cyber security session in primary school Santosh Nagar in collaboration with Child Rights and You. Rakesh Kumar ji and Head Constable Bhagirath ji from Cyber Cell introduced themselves and gave important information related to cybercrime, such as tips related to security of social media apps like two step verification, one time password and attractive loan apps and gave information about Taf cop portal.

FedEx

On 16th December 2023, at Neb Sarai, children fun activity was conducted by employees of FedEx. They brought stationery and ration for children. We thanked FedEx for their contribution and engagement.

General Body Meeting

Nav Srishti is thrilled to announce that our General Body meeting was held on 29th December 2023, at Neb Sarai. We are grateful to all our members who joined us both online and offline, and we truly appreciate their valuable contributions. Thank you for being a part of our journey!

Sensitization Programme

In the month of December, Nav Srishti organization at Faridabad district, organized sensitization programme in 10 police stations on SOP on missing children. The purpose was to how the police should investigate missing children as per SOP. SHOs of all the police stations described such SOP as very effective and said that we will act in the cases of missing children only according to this SOP.
