Working for Women Empowerment & Child Rights

Monthly Update (October 2024)

Community-Driven Wash Initiatives

Under Child Rights and You Community-Driven Wash Initiatives for Improved Sanitation in Haryana, poster making activity was done with children's group and youth group in Santosh Nagar community through which the message was conveyed in the society that everyone should keep themselves clean and how the surrounding environment should be cleaned.

A street play was conducted by adolescent's group in Santosh Nagar to convey the above-mentioned message and further requested community people to put dry garbage and wet garbage separately.

Mahila Panchayats

We are excited to announce the launch of 5 new Mahila Panchayats and 10 Women's Solidarity groups in I Block, Sangam Vihar, Delhi.

These Panchayats will serve as safe spaces for women to come together, raise their voices, and find solutions to their challenges. Through these platforms, we aim to foster empowerment, provide support, and promote social justice for women in our communities.

World Sight Day

Supported by Apollo Tyre Foundation, the health camp organized under World Sight Day at Nitco Gali, Ghaziabad, Uttar Pradesh, a session on vision care was conducted, offering vision screening services for truckers and the surrounding community. A total of 94 patients were covered during the camp.

Financial Literacy and Money Management Skill

A three-day training was provided to women and girls, during which Ms. Shabana from Institute of Social Responsibility & Accountability (ISRA) discussed essential topics such as financial literacy, saving, and money management skills. She also emphasized digital learning, helping participants gain confidence in using basic digital tools and resources for both personal and professional development. She also reviewed various support schemes from government and non-government sources that offer financial aid, training, and mentorship, encouraging participants to leverage these resources to start their ventures.
