A vibrant Women's Day celebration was organized at Sangam Vihar, bringing together around 450 women from Sangam Vihar and Nangloi to celebrate unity and empowerment. The event included sports activities, songs, dance performances, and poetry, highlighting the talent and spirit of women. Winners of the sports activities were awarded medals by Ward Councilor Mrs. Kajal Singh.

Mrs. Reena Banerjee appreciated the enthusiasm and participation of the women, while Mrs. Sheela from DLISA shared important information on women's legal rights. The celebration was a memorable tribute to womanhood, strength, and togetherness.

A District-Level Stakeholder Meeting on Gender-Based Violence (GBV) was organized at PRIA NGO, New Delhi, and facilitated by Nav Srishti. Representatives from the Women & Child Development Department, Delhi Police, DLSA, NGOs, and community leaders participated in the discussion on the current situation of GBV and the importance of strengthening coordination among stakeholders.

Participants shared challenges and solutions related to supporting survivors and emphasized the need for better referral systems and community awareness. The meeting concluded with a collective commitment to work together to prevent gender-based violence and ensure timely support and justice for survivors.
